Privacy Policy

We are committed to protecting your privacy. Before providing us with any of your details, please read the following important information which concerns the protection of your personal data. We will hold and process any personal information which you provide via the Site or by submitting emails and/or online forms for our own internal business purposes, including lawful purposes relating to recruitment where information is sent by you via the recruitment part of the Site. We do not pass on or sell online personal information to third parties. We may, however, share information within our organisation. This may include our employees and contractors. Please note that by sending your personal information to us you are explicitly consenting to the processing and transfer of such information in this way.

Given the global nature of CBA's business, we may need to transmit your information to other members of CBA which may involve the cross-border transfer of your information. Please note that by sending your personal information to us you are explicitly consenting to the cross-border transfer of your information.

In addition to the information you submit to us via the Site, we may collect information about visits to the Site. We collect information on the page browser access. This is used within CBA to improve the design and layout of our site. We gather information on the relative popularity of each page, the average number of pages accessed by visitors, the number of emails sent or files downloaded, and the average time spent on the site. None of this information is linked back to you as an individual.

We may provide hyperlinks from the Site to websites of third parties. Please note that this privacy statement applies only to the contents of the Site and not to those web sites to which we may provide a link.

We are willing, on written request from you, to provide details of any personal information which you have provided us with, and/or to cease to make use of your personal information for the purposes described above. We may require proof of identity from you prior to disclosing such information. This is in order to safeguard the security of your information. If any information with which you have provided us becomes inaccurate or out of date, or if you have any queries about this privacy statement, please contact us via our website.
